Dear Amanda,

Thank you for registering for the Supply Chain Sustainability School, your membership is now active. Please login to complete the confidential Self-Assessment tool and receive your bespoke Action Plan and access to free resources and support.

The School is the result of the collective efforts of many of the top major contractors in the UK, and represents a common approach to addressing sustainability within our supply chains.

If you have any questions or would like further information please email: danielle@actionsustainability.com or visit the website: www.supplychainschool.co.uk

Kind regards,
